The issue, whether anything is owed defendants, raises a discrete factual issue, to which defendant can adequately reply. Oral argument is not needed, and the application for it is denied.

Re: United States of America v. Martin Silver, S1 20 Cr. 360 (AKH)

Dear Judge Hellerstein:

Mr. Silver writes to respectfully request oral argument on the government's pending Turnover Motion in the above-captioned case (Dkt. No. 141), which is fully submitted as of today. Because this matter is of the utmost importance to Mr. Silver, we respectfully ask the Court for the chance to be heard on the arguments made in the parties' motion papers. If the Court is inclined to grant Mr. Silver's request, we respectfully request a date for argument during the week of December 9, 2024.

Respectfully Submitted,

Nola B. Heller
